Legislative/Regulatory Requirements

Sections 132, 133 and 134 of the Police Services Act address the effective management, storage and disposition of personal property, money and firearms, which come into the possession of the police service.

Section 29 of the Adequacy Standards Regulation requires a police services board to have a policy with respect to property and evidence control and the collection, handling, preservation, documentation and analysis of physical evidence.

In addition, section 13(1)(n) requires the Chief of Police to establish procedures and processes in respect of property and evidence control. Furthermore, section 14(1)(b) requires the Chief of Police to establish procedures and processes in respect of the collection, handling, preservation, documentation and analysis of physical evidence.

Sample Board Policy

Board Policy # _____

It is the policy of the _____ Police Services Board with respect to property and evidence control and the collection, preservation, documentation and analysis of physical evidence that the Chief of Police will:

- a) ensure and report back on compliance by members of the police service with sections 132, 133 and 134 of the Police Services Act;
- b) establish procedures, consistent with the advice from the Centre of Forensic Sciences and its current version of the Laboratory Guide for the Investigator, for the safe and secure collection, preservation, control, handling and packaging of evidence;
- c) establish procedures for the secure collection, preservation and control of property;
- d) ensure that an annual audit of the property/evidence held by the police service is conducted by a member(s) not routinely or directly connected with the property/evidence control function, and report the results to the Board; and
- e) where a member who has responsibility for a property/evidence storage area is transferred or replaced, ensure that an inventory is taken of the property/evidence in that area.

Police Service GuidelinesProcedures on Evidence
Control

1. Every police service's procedures should:
 - a) set out the procedures, consistent with the advice from the Centre of Forensic Sciences and its current version of the Laboratory Guide for the Investigator, for the safe and secure collection, preservation, control, handling and packaging of evidence;
 - b) require that in all cases a secure continuity of evidence be maintained and documented;
 - c) require that complete records be kept of the seizing, finding, retaining, storing, returning, disposing of, or destruction of, all evidence coming into the possession of the police service consistent with legal requirements;
 - d) require the establishment of designated secure areas for the storage of evidence, and ensure access by members is controlled and recorded; and
 - e) where an investigation falls within the definition of a major case, require officers to comply with the procedures set out in the Ministry's designated Ontario Major Case Management Manual.

Local Protocol

2. Every police service should enter into a local protocol with the Crown on the retention and release of evidence.

Body Site Searches

3. Every police service should establish and maintain procedures relating to body site and other major crime searches that address, where practicable, the use of:
 - a) a grid search;
 - b) methods to preserve the scene against inclement weather;
 - c) adequate lighting;
 - d) procedures for documenting any found evidence, including the precise locations and continuity of evidence;
 - e) photography and videotaping, where available, of the scene and any found evidence;
 - f) a method for indexing exhibits and photographs;
 - g) decontamination suits, where appropriate;
 - h) aerial and topographic mapping information, where available; and
 - i) resources to avoid cross-contamination of different sites, where appropriate.

Procedures
on Property
Control

4. Every police service's procedures for receiving, tracking and disposing of all property that comes into the police service's possession should:
 - a) address compliance by members with sections 132, 133 and 134 of the Police Services Act;
 - b) require that all property be logged into the police service's records, as soon as practicable;

- c) require that all property be placed under the control of personnel responsible for this function before the member obtaining the property reports off-duty, unless otherwise authorized by a supervisor;
 - d) require that a report be completed providing details regarding the circumstances by which the property came into the possession of the police service and a description of each item of property obtained;
 - e) address procedures for the packaging and labeling of all property prior to storage;
 - f) require members to make reasonable effort to identify and notify the owner of stolen or found property;
 - g) require the establishment of designated secure areas for the storage of property, with limited access by members;
 - h) set out procedures for the temporary and final release or disposition of all property; and
 - i) ensure that secure facilities are designated for the temporary storage of property when the property area is closed.
5. Every Chief of Police should ensure that an annual audit of the property/evidence control function is conducted by a member(s) not routinely or directly connected with the property/evidence control function, and report the results to the Board.
6. Where a member who has responsibility for a property/evidence storage area is transferred or replaced, every Chief of Police should ensure that an inventory is taken of the property/evidence in that area. The inventory should be jointly conducted by the newly appointed member responsible and a designee of the Chief of Police, in order to ensure that all records relating to the stored property/evidence are accurate.
